

LUCIEN MINES MURDERED AS WIFE GOES TO PRISON

Shot While Engaged in Altercation on Missouri Avenue Early
This Morning.

Lucien Mines, colored, whose wife, Maud Mines, was sent to Occoquan yesterday for alleged misconduct on the street, this morning was shot and killed while engaged in an argument at 231 Missouri avenue, where he and his wife had resided during the past two weeks. A colored man known to the police as Jack Wilson, alias "Jack the Bear," proprietor of the rooming house, was accused of the shooting, and the police were told that he left the house a few minutes after the killing.

The shooting occurred in the room of Lafayette Moore and wife on the second floor, the police were informed, where he dropped dead, the bullet having entered his left chest and probably penetrated the heart. Fannie Wilson, Sarah Cooper, Annie Moore, Lafayette Moore, James Cooper and Marie Smiler, occupants of the house, were detained by the police.

Circumstances of the Shooting.

Mines, who was alone because his wife had been sent to Occoquan, it is stated, visited the room of Lafayette Moore and his wife shortly before 1 o'clock this morning and discussed with them a report that Wilson had objected to their having callers, and while there, the police were told, Mines partook of Moore's hospitality from a black bottle. Wilson, attracted to Moore's room by the discussion, knocked on the door and was admitted. It is said that he gruffly inquired what the discussion was about, drew a revolver from under his bath robe and fired the shot. The police were told that Wilson hurriedly left the room, dressed and was last seen disappearing through Army Square, going south.

The wounded man lived less than one minute after he was shot. It is stated that Mines was well known in Alexandria, and that the police of that city had asked for his arrest. Wilson, it is stated, was an amateur athlete and theatrical man who was well known to the police of the sixth precinct. Detectives Evans and Stringfellow participated in a futile search for the alleged slayer last night, the police of the sixth precinct assisting.

Mrs. Edward J. Adams was seized with a heart attack as she was leaving the rectory of a Catholic church at Emmitsburg, Md., and died a half hour later.

HUNGARIANS HURL SHAFTS AT AUSTRIA

Old Enmity Between Countries
Breaks Out Anew, Is Report.

LONDON, December 30.—The Budapest correspondent of the Post, in a letter published today, states that the old enmity between Austria and Hungary has burst into a fresh flame, and that even the pretense of unity, which had existed, has disappeared since the time when the Austrians offended the Hungarians by removing the Hungarian flag from a fortress at Belgrade. The seriousness of the present quarrel, the correspondent says, is indicated by the parliamentary activities of the independence party, which, despite the entreaties of the premier, has been airing the Hungarian grievances.

Herr Urmanczy, a leader of the independence party, in a recent fiery speech declared that the advantages gained in the war were largely due to German generalship and Hungarian bravery, and added that Austrian generalship and martial spirit had nothing to do with them.

Face Brutal Behavior.

If every one had done the same amount of work and shown the same heroism and sacrifice as the Hungarians they would by this time be enjoying peace, Urmanczy said. Although the Hungarians had won the praise of their allies, the Italian, he said, the Austrians had shown no appreciation and they had to face continually the brutal behavior of Austrian officers.

The speaker continued to recount some of these instances, remarking that the Austrians' communications always slighted the efforts of Hungarian heroism and that Austrian officers deprecated and insulted the Hungarian troops. Count Tisza, the Hungarian premier, in defending the Austrians replied that petty tricks of humiliation had not been committed by any one in authority, but by subalterns, and he would see that they were reprimanded.

WAR OFFICIALLY REPORTED.

BRITISH STATEMENT.

LONDON, December 30.—The British official statement of last night reads: The enemy made an unsuccessful attack on one of our aerodromes. Of four machines only two reached their objective. No damage was done. One of our aeroplanes was shot down. Last night there was a successful enterprise near Arras. The enemy's trenches were entered and bombed with good effect. The casualties were numerous. After ten minutes the party withdrew. Our casualties were light.

Today our artillery was effective against the trenches and billets in many places between Mametz and Monchy. The enemy exploded two small mines near the village of Mametz. There was no damage to either troops or trenches. The day was quiet south of La Bassée canal. About Ypres a heavy reciprocal bombardment occurred.

ITALIAN STATEMENT.

ROME, December 29, via London, December 30.—In the Giudicaria valley our artillery continued its bombardment of Fort Por and also fired upon the village of Por, where movements of troops and convoys were observed. The troops and convoys were dispersed. The activity of small detachments made some progress in the zone around the confluence of the Lendol Vallara torrent and on the Adige. In the valley of the Sukan the enemy's artillery lightly attacked Borko, Sastelnuovo and Strigno, but without damage. On the heights west of Gorizia and on the Carso the enemy vainly tried by bombing operations to disturb our work of strengthening our lines, which is being actively pursued.

AUSTRIAN STATEMENT.

VIENNA, December 29, via London, December 30.—Russian theater: On the Bessarabian front there have been several local hostile attacks, which failed, with great losses to the Russians. East of Pulkavov our reconnoitering detachments retired on our chief division before superior Russian forces. Italian theater: The Italian artillery has displayed activity on the south and southeast Tyrol front. Attacks on Monte Barbonale and in the region of Col di Lana were repulsed. There have been gun, hand-grenade and mining raids on this front. Balkan theater: Nothing important has been reported.

MONTENEGRIN STATEMENT.

PARIS, December 30.—The Montenegrin consul general here has received the following statement: The enemy directed, without result, a violent artillery fire against our positions on the Tara river December 27. He attacked us energetically near Lioubovia, but was repulsed, with great loss, in the direction of Berane. We followed up our last success by occupying two more villages, advancing as far as Morita. On our Lovcen front the enemy opened fire from the forts and warships on Raskova Gora, but we held our ground. The bombardment continued fifteen hours, 2,000 large shells being fired. At the same time sharp infantry attacks were delivered, all of which were repulsed. Notwithstanding the intensity of the Austrian artillery fire, we had only two killed and two wounded, which shows how poorly the guns were handled.

Our success December 22 at Lepenatz was greater than at first announced. Five hundred bodies were found on the right wing of the contingent operating against us, but the total Austrian losses were more than 2,000 killed and wounded. King Nikola sent congratulations to the general commanding the Vassiolevitch brigade.

RUSSIAN STATEMENT.

PETROGRAD, December 29, via London, December 30.—On the left bank of the River As a Lettish detachment attacked an enemy detachment with bayonet. The Germans fled, leaving many killed and wounded. On the rest of the front as far as the Pripiet river there have been artillery duels and fusillades in places south of Pripiet, and in Galicia there have been encounters. There is no change on the Caucasian front.

BELGIAN STATEMENT.

PARIS, December 30.—To the north and to the south of Dixmude our shelling of the enemy machine gun shelters has given the best results. Our batteries destroyed the parapets of German fortified works at the Chateau de Woumen and near Louvain.

GERMAN STATEMENT.

BERLIN, December 29, via London, December 30.—Western theater of war: Westende (Belgium) was bombarded again by an enemy monitor, without result. The advance on Hirsztain (three miles southwest of Hartmanns-Weilkerhoff), which we reported yesterday, broke down under our fire during the evening. The French twice attacked positions on Hartmanns-Weilkerhoff, which our troops had recaptured. They penetrated certain points in our trenches. After the first attack the enemy was driven off everywhere immediately. Fighting for possession of certain trench sections continues. Up to the present the French have lost five officers and more than 200 men, who have been captured.
